

Beyond the Certification:

Revealing the Secrets for Real-World PM success

Wayne@Bothaconsulting.com

What is one thing you can do differently as result of this presentation?

The question:

What does it take to be a successful project manager in the real-world?

Study

- Why I did it.
- Interviewed over 30 senior, seasoned PM's.
- Detail findings, with action steps are published in book.
- We will discuss most striking findings, and then dive deep where you want to, so that you can identify one action item to implement.

Striking findings of study

- Get a mentor.
- Take the offensive. Take the lead.
- Communicate proactively, consistently.
- Understand the business drivers.
- Problem solving. Learn how to do it, and market it.
- Have network to call on.
- Show me your scars.
- Victors, not victims.

Questions?

Wrap up:

What is one thing you can do differently as result of this presentation?

